(a) that the undertaking to be so included is engaged in the same type of industry or business as the undertaking or the group of undertakings in which the trade dispute referred for adjudication has arisen; and

(b) that the inclusion of the undertaking in the adjudication proceedings will not materially delay the award; and

(c) that the issues involved in the trade dispute referred for adjudication have already given rise or are such as, in the circumstances, may reasonably be expected to give rise, to a similar dispute in the undertaking to be so included.

(1B) Where an undertaking has been included in adjudication proceedings under sub-rule (1A) the provisions of this rule and of any order or award made thereunder shall (save as may be expressly provided to the contrary in any such order or award) apply to and in relation to such undertaking as they apply to and in relation to any undertaking or group of undertakings in which the trade dispute referred for adjudication has arisen.

(3) Nothing in the Arbitration Act, 1940 (X of 1940), shall apply to any proceedings under any such order.

(ii) the appropriate Government may, with a view to specify the said matters direct the adjudicating authority to make a preliminary inquiry into the nature of the dispute, and postpone specification for such time as may be reasonably required.

(4) If any person contravenes any order made under this rule he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both.

(5) In this rule the expression "appropriate Government" shall mean, in relation to trade disputes concerning any industry, business or undertaking carried on by the Central Government or by a railway company operating a Federal Railway and trade disputes concerning a mine or an oilfield or the port authority of a major port, the Central Government, and in relation to any other trade disputes, the Provincial Government; and the expressions "employer", "lock-out", "strike", "trade dispute" and "workman" shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in section 2 of the Trade Disputes Act, 1929 (VII of 1929), subject to the modification that the references to "trade or industry" in the definitions of "strike" and "workman" in the said section shall be construed as including the performance of its functions by a local authority.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (VIII of 1878), the Central Government may, by order prohibit, restrict, or impose conditions on the clearance whether for home consumption or for shipment to a foreign port of any goods or class of goods imported into British India.

(b) an order (hereafter in this rule referred to as a "winding up order") requiring the business to be wound up; and the making of a restriction order as respects any business shall not prejudice the power of the Central Government, if it thinks it expedient so to do, at any subsequent date to make a winding up order as respects that business.

(3) Where an order under sub-rule (2) is made as respects any business, the Central Government may, by that or a subsequent order, appoint a Supervisor to control and supervise the carrying out of the order, and, in the case of a winding up order, to conduct the winding up of the business and may confer on the Supervisor any such powers in relation to the business as are exercisable by a liquidator in the voluntary winding up of a company in relation to the company (including power in the name of the person carrying on the business or in his own name, and by deed or otherwise, to convey or transfer any property, and power to apply to the Court to determine any question arising in the carrying out of the order), and may by the order confer on the Supervisor such other powers as the Central Government thinks necessary or convenient for the purpose of giving full effect to the order.

(4) Where a restriction order or a winding up order is made as respects any business, the distribution of any assets of the business which are distributed while the order is in force shall be made in accordance with the rules as to preferential payments applicable to the distribution of the assets of a company which is being wound up, but subject to such modifications, if any, as the Central Government may, by general or special order prescribe in this behalf, and the said assets of the business shall, so far as they are available for discharging unsecured debts, be applied in discharging unsecured debts due to creditors of the business who are neither enemies nor enemy subjects in priority to unsecured debts due to any other creditors, and any balance, after providing for the discharge of all liabilities of the business, shall be distributed among the persons interested in the business in such manner as the Central Government may direct:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-rule shall, in their application to the distribution of any money or other property which would, in accordance with those provisions, fall to be paid or transferred to an enemy, enemy subject or enemy firm, whether as a creditor or otherwise, have effect subject to the provisions of rule 114 and of any order made under that rule.

(5) Where any business for which a Supervisor has been appointed under this rule has assets in enemy territory, the Supervisor shall, if in his opinion it is practicable so to do, cause an estimate to be prepared—

(a) of the value of those assets;

(b) of the amount of any liabilities of the business to creditors, whether secured or unsecured, who are enemies;

(c) of the amount of the claims of persons who are enemies to participate, otherwise than as creditors of the business, in any distribution of assets of the business made while an order under sub-rule (2) is in force as respects the business; and, where such an estimate is made, the said liabilities and claims shall, for the purposes of this rule, be deemed to have been satisfied out of the said assets of the business in enemy territory, or to have been satisfied thereout so far as those assets will go, and only the balance (if any) shall rank for satisfaction out of the other assets of the business:

Provided that where the rights of any creditor of, or other person interested in, the business are vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property, nothing in this sub-rule shall affect the rights of the Custodian against the assets of the business in India unless such rights have been disclaimed by him.

(6) Where an estimate has been prepared under sub-rule (5), a certificate of the Supervisor as to the value or amount of any assets, claims or liabilities to which the estimate relates shall be conclusive for the purpose of determining the amount of the assets of the business available for discharging the other liabilities of the business and for distribution amongst other persons claiming to be interested in the business:

Provided that nothing in this sub-rule shall affect the rights of creditors of, and other persons interested in, the business against the assets of the business in enemy territory.

(7) The Central Government may, on an application made by a Supervisor appointed under this rule, after considering the application and any objections which may be made by any person who appears to the Central Government to be interested, by order grant the Supervisor a release, and an order of the Central Government under this sub-rule shall discharge the Supervisor from all liability in respect of any act done or default made by him in the exercise and performance of his powers and duties as Supervisor, but any such order may be revoked by the Central Government on proof that it was obtained by fraud or by suppression or concealment of any material fact.

(8) Where an order under sub-rule (2) has been made as respects a business carried on by any individuals or by a company, no insolvency petition against the individuals, or petition for the winding up of the company, shall be presented or resolution for the winding up of the company passed, or steps for the enforcement of the rights of any creditors of the individuals or company taken, without the consent of the Central Government, but where the business is carried on by a company, the Central Government may present a petition for the winding up of the company by the Court, and the making of an order under sub-rule (2) shall be a ground on which the company may be wound up by the Court.

(9) Where an order is made under this rule appointing a Supervisor, for any business, any remuneration of, and any costs, charges and expenses incurred by, the Supervisor, and any other costs, charges and expenses incurred in connection with the control and supervision of the carrying out of the order, shall, to such amount as may be certified by the Central Government, be defrayed out of the assets of the business, and as from the date of the certificate, be charged on those assets in priority to any other charges thereon.

(10) If any person contravenes the provisions of any order made under sub-rule (2) he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years or with fine or with both.

W M CLARK, Additional Director of Agriculture, for Director of Agriculture, Bengal

DIRECTORATE OF AGRICULTURE BENGAL

Calcutta, the 10th April 1946.

Third Forecast of the Wheat Crop of Bengal for 1945-46.

[Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1943-44, the area under wheat in Bengal has represented some 0·5 per cent. of the total area under wheat in India. The ratio of the irrigated wheat acreage to the total wheat acreage (a) in British India and (b) in Bengal has, in the five years ending 1943-44, averaged (a) 48·0 per cent. and (b) 7·0 per cent., respectively.]

Character of the season.—Since the submission of the second forecast, the weather and its effect on the growth of the crop have not been favourable in most of the districts. Some damage due to drought has been reported from the majority of the wheat growing tracts.

Acreage.—The total area sown with the crop is estimated to be 198,300 acres this year, as against 168,100 acres returned in the corresponding forecast of last year and against the last year's revised final acreage of 201,800 acres found by plot to plot crop survey conducted by the Development Commissioner, Bengal.

Outturn.—The average outturn for the Province as a whole works out to 63 per cent. of the normal this year, as against 72 per cent. and 71 per cent. shown in the corresponding and the final forecasts, respectively, of the last year.

Taking the normal yield to be 9 maunds per acre, the gross yield of the crop for the Province works out to 41,300 tons this year, as against 40,000 tons and 47,400 tons (revised) of the corresponding and the final forecasts, respectively, of the last year.

N. M. KHAN, Director.

DIRECTORATE OF AGRICULTURE BENGAL

Calcutta, the 15th October 1946

Second Forecast of the Sugarcane Crop of Bengal for 1946-47.

(Note —On an average of the five years ending 1944-45, the area under sugarcane in Bengal has represented some 7 6 per cent of the total area under sugarcane in India)

Character of the season —Since the issue of the first forecast in August last, the weather and its effect on the growth of the crop have been favourable, excepting in some parts of Noakhali, Bakarganj, Malda, Jessore, Birbhum and Midnapore, where the crop has been adversely affected by heavy rains and floods The present outlook of the crop, for the province as a whole, may be regarded as hopeful.

Area planted —The total area planted with the crop is estimated at 300,300 acres this year, as against 323,500 acres shown in both the corresponding and the final forecasts of last year

Outturn —The average outturn of the crop for the province works out to 78 per cent of the normal this year, as against 76 per cent and 80 per cent shown in the corresponding and the final forecasts, respectively, of last year.

Condition figures —The outturn is estimated at 78 per cent of the normal This means, the condition of this year's crop is equal to that of 10 years' average.

The current year's acreage is less than that of last year by 7 2 per cent This is mainly due to unfavourable weather at planting time

Special Directions.

(a) The stations included under f.o.r. Calcutta, Bombay, Karachi and Madras are shown in the Freight (Place Extras) List No. 1 of 1945.

The basis prices are subject to extras for place and extras for section, size, thickness or gauge, except where "used" or "secondhand" or "scrap" has been specifically mentioned, the maximum prices fixed apply to fresh materials in the condition usually supplied by producers.

(b) To arrive at the prices for places other than Calcutta, Bombay, Karachi, and Madras, the place extras for iron and steel fixed by the Iron and Steel Controller from time to time under Clause II-B of the Iron and Steel (Control of Production and Distribution) Order, 1941, should be added to the base price. For places for which no extra has been so fixed, railway freight per ton at public tariff rates for full wagonloads from the nearest of the above four posts to the place in question should be added. In any dispute regarding the place extras, the decision of the Controller shall be final. [These freights are given in the "I.S.C. Freight (Place Extra) List No. 1 of 1945"].

(c) Extras for section, size, thickness or gauge.—Where a lot consists of one section of structural, one size of bar or rod, one thickness of plate or one gauge of sheet or wire and no special provision has been made in this schedule for such a lot, the basis price is subject to the standard extra for that section, size, thickness or gauge, notified by the Iron and Steel Controller from time to time under Clause II-B of the Iron and Steel (Control of Production and Distribution) Order, 1941.

Where a lot consists of a mixture of section, sizes, thicknesses or gauges, the price will be calculated on the lowest priced section, size, thickness or gauge.

(d) F. O. R. Destination Sales by producers.—(i) Where lots are despatched by rail full wagonloads by producers, the price shall be f.o.r. destination, i.e., the base price shown in column I plus the appropriate place extra for the destination.

(ii) Where wagons are not fully loaded, the customer shall pay the f.o.r. destination rate plus the difference between the actual freight per ton and the amount of freight per ton which would have been incurred if the wagon had been fully loaded.

(iii) If where a producer sells a lot f.o.r. destination, the materials are sent at the customer's request by a route or means of transport other than the cheapest, the extra freight charges shall be borne by the customer.

(e) Other Sales.—Except when a sale is made f.o.r. destination by a producer, the basis price shown in columns I, II or III shall apply f.o.r. seller's siding or nearest despatching station for rail delivery in "smalls" or ex-site for road delivery. For these sales, the basis price shown in columns I, II or III according to the classification of the seller, is subject to the appropriate extra for the place from which the steel is sold.

(f) Packing and bundling charges.—Where light sections, bars or rods are bundled a bundling charge not exceeding Rs. 5 per ton may be recovered from the buyer. Bundling and packing charges are included in the prices for wire, wire nails, tin, terne and P.C.R.C.A. strips.

(g) Delivery charges.—Ex-Controlled Scrap Merchants' Yards are not admissible if delivery is made ex-yard or f.o.r. siding or nearest station or into workshop adjoining the stockyard.

PART IVB—Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council; Reports of Select Committee presented or to be presented to that Council; and Bills published before introduction in that Council.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 11621A.—19th November, 1946.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 51 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 25th September, 1946, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL URBAN AREA RENT REGULATION BILL, 1943.

WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the increase of rent on certain premises situated within the limits of urban areas in the Presidency of Bengal;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Urban Area Rent Regulation Act, 1943.

(2) It extends to all urban areas in the province of Bengal.

(3) It shall come into force in such urban areas and on such dates as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, fix in this behalf and shall remain in force in each of such areas for such period as specified in the said notification unless such period is extended by another similar notification in the meantime.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(1) the expression "landlord" means any person for the time being entitled to receive rent in respect of any premises whether on his own account or on account or on behalf or for the benefit of any other person or as a trustee or as a Mutwalli of any Waqf property, guardian or receiver or in any other legal capacity for any other person and includes tenant who sub-lets any premises or a part of a premises and every person from time to time deriving title under a landlord;

(2) the expression "premises" includes—

(i) any building or part of a building let out separately for any purpose whatever including any land or furniture let therewith; or

(ii) any land let separately for the purpose of being used mainly for business or trade, but does not include a room in a hotel or a boarding house;

(3) the expression "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(4) the expression "Court" means the court in the jurisdiction of which the premises are situated;

(5) the expression "standard rent" in relation to any premises means—

(a) the rent at which the premises were let on the first day of January, 1939;

(b) where they were not let out on the first day of January, 1939, the rent at which they were let out before that date; or

(c) where they were or shall be first let after the first day of January, 1939, the rent at which they were or shall be first let; or

(d) in any of the cases specified in section 12 the rent fixed by the court;

(Clauses 3—8.)

3. (1) Subject to the provision of this Act where the rent of any premises has been or is hereafter, during the continuance of this Act, increased above the standard rent, the amount by which such increase exceeds the standard rent shall notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, be irrecoverable :

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply—

(i) to any rent which became due before the first day of January, 1939 ;

(ii) to any periodical increment of rent accruing due under any agreement entered into before the first day of January, 1939, or

(iii) to rent payable under any lease entered into before the first day of January, 1939, which has not expired on the said date.

(2) For the purpose of this section the rent shall be deemed to have accrued from day to day.

4. Where the landlord has since the first day of January, 1939, incurred, or during the period this Act remains in force, incurs expenditure on any improvement or structural alterations, of any premises (not including expenditure on decoration or ordinary repairs), an increase of rent at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum on the amount so spent shall not be deemed to be an increase for the purpose of section 3.

5. (1) Where, as the result of any alteration in the terms of the tenancy, the terms on which any premises are held are on the whole less favourable to the tenant than the previous terms the rent shall be deemed to be increased for the purposes of this Act, whether the sum payable as rent is increased or not.

(2) Where, as the result of any alteration of the terms of the tenancy, the terms on which any premises are held are not on the whole less favourable to the tenant than the previous terms, the rent shall not be deemed to be increased for the purposes of this Act whether the sum payable as rent is increased or not.

6. Where any landlord pays any municipal rate, cess or tax in respect of any premises, any increase of the rent thereof shall not be deemed to be an increase for the purpose of section 3, if the amount of such increase does not exceed any increase in the amount for the time being payable by the landlord in respect of such rate, cess or tax over the amount so paid.

7. (1) It shall not be lawful for any person, in consideration of the grant, renewal or continuance of a tenancy, of any premises to require the payment of any fine, premium or any other like sum in addition to the rent.

(2) Where any such payment has been made after the first day of January, 1939, the amount shall be recoverable by the tenant by whom it was so made from the landlord, and may without prejudice to any other method of recovery be deducted from any rent payable by him to the landlord.

(3) Nothing in this section shall apply to any payment under any agreement entered into before the first day of January, 1939.

(2) Where any order of the kind mentioned in sub-section (1) has been made on or after the first day of January, 1939, but not executed before the commencement of this Act the Court by which the order was made may, if it is of opinion that the order would not have been made, if this Act had been in force on the date of making such order, rescind or vary the order in such manner as the Court think fit for the purpose of giving effect to this Act :

Provided nothing in this section shall apply where the tenant has committed any act contrary to the provisions of clause (o) or clause (p) of section 108 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, or has been guilty of conduct which is nuisance or an annoyance to any adjoining or neighbouring occupier, or where the premises are reasonably and bona fide required by the landlord either for the erection of buildings or for his own occupation or for the occupation of any person for whose benefit the premises are held, or where the landlord can show any cause which may be deemed satisfactory by the Court.

9. Where any order for the recovery of possession of any premises has been made under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 8 on the ground that the premises are reasonably and bona fide required by the landlord either for the erection of buildings or for his own occupation or for the occupation of any person for whose benefit the premises are held and the premises are not used for such purposes within three months of the date when possession has been obtained or are re-let within such period to any person other than the original tenant, the Court by which the order was made, may on an application of the original tenant made within six months of such dates place him in occupation of the premises on the original terms and conditions and if in the opinion of the Court the premises were not reasonably and bona fide required by the landlord for the aforesaid purposes, direct payment to him by the landlord of such amount as compensation as the Court may think reasonable under the circumstances.

10. No Court shall issue a distress warrant for any rent due in respect of any premises situated in the area to which this Act applies or no distress warrant shall be issued under chapter VIII of the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882, unless the person making the applications for the same, swear or affirm that none of the rent in respect of which the warrant is applied for, is irrecoverable under this Act.

11. Where any sum has after the commencement of this Act been paid as rent, being the sum which is irrecoverable under the provisions of this Act, the tenant who has paid such sum may recover the same from the landlord or his legal representative by an application made to the Court within a period of six months from the date of such payment or without prejudice to any other method of recovery such sum may be deducted by such tenant from any rent payable within such six months by him to such landlord.

Explanation.—In this section the expression "legal representative" will bear the same meaning as in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and includes also, in the case of joint family property, the joint family of which the deceased person was a member.

12. (1) In any of the following cases the Court may fix the standard rent at such amount as having regard to the provisions of this Act and the circumstances of the case, it deems just :—

(a) where by reason of any premises having at one time been let as a whole and at another time in parts or, where a tenant has sub-let or sub-lets a part of any premises let to him, or where for any reason any difficulty arises in giving effect to this act, or

(b) where in the case of any premises let, furnished, it is necessary to distinguish for the purpose of giving effect to this act, the amount payable as rent from the amount payable as hire of furniture, or

(c) where, any premises have been or are let rent-free or at a nominal rent or for some consideration in addition to rent.

(2) In the case of any such sub-letting as is referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1) the Court shall have regard to the standard rent of the premises a part of which has been or is sub-let.

13. (1) The Court may, from time to time, increase the standard rent of any premises if the landlord proves to the satisfaction of the Court that by reason of any increase in the amenities of neighbourhood since the standard rent was originally fixed, or if the standard rent was at any time increased under this section, since it was last previously increased, the premises could be let at a higher rent than they would have realised had there been no such increase in the amenities.

(2) The aggregate increase of rent under this section shall in no circumstances exceed ten per centum of the standard rent of the premises as originally fixed.

(3) For the purpose of this section, the expression "amenities of the neighbourhood" shall include any permanent and lasting improvement in the condition of lighting, sanitation, roads and other communications and the abatement or removal of nuisances.

The Bengal Urban Area Rent Regulation Bill, 1943.

(Clauses 14—16.)

14. When under the provisions of this Act any question arises for the determination of a Court or any order is to be made by a Court such question shall be determined or such order shall be made by the Court having cognisance of the suit or proceeding, if any, in relation to which such question arises or such order is made.

15. The Provincial Government may direct by a notification published in the Official Gazette that all or any of the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any particular premises or class of such premises.

16. The Provincial Government may, subject to the condition of previous publication in the Official Gazette, make rules for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is an admitted fact that in some of the urban areas in Bengal there has been abnormal rise in rent of premises owing to increase of population caused by the evacuation of persons from the towns situated in class I areas such as Calcutta, Chittagong, Asansol and moreover, there is no legislation in Bengal to regulate house rents and relation between landlord and tenant of premises in urban areas. The provisions embodied in this Bill are expected to remove such lacuna. The provisions are very moderate and are not intended to introduce any sweeping changes.

A

to amend the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884, in its application to the Province of Bengal.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884, in its application to the Province of Bengal for the purpose hereinafter appearing;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Agriculturists' Loans (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1944.

2. In sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884 (hereinafter to be called the said Act) the following words shall be added at the end, namely:—

"and as to sale of seed, manure or fertilizer on credit to owners and occupiers of arable lands."

3. In section 5 of the said Act, after the word "loan" where it occurs for the first time, the words "or sale of seed, manure or fertilizer on credit" and where it occurs for the second and third times, the words "or sale" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

At present, there is no provision in the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884, to help owners and occupiers of arable lands by sale of seeds, manure or fertilizers on credit by Government. Hence there is necessity of the proposed amendments for Bengal.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The members of the Drugs Enquiry Committee, which was appointed by the Government of India and who published their report in 1931, found that the indigenous drugs, i. e., the drugs cultivated or grown in India or the source or origin of which is India and the use of which is confined to the practice of the Indian systems of medicine or treatment as opposed to the western system are largely used by a majority of Indian population specially in small towns and villages and that large firms for manufacturing Ayurvedic and Tibbi preparations have sprung up; there were also numerous Ayurvedic and Tibbi pharmacies in which prescriptions were dispensed and they also found that most of the indigenous drugs are not up to standard and adulterated. They strongly recommended that the Government in the interest of the large majority of population who use this form of medicament had the right and duty to regulate these preparations of the drugs and medicinal preparation. They suggested among others that Unani and Ayurvedic schools should be started for proper training of practitioners in Indian system of medicine, that only those practitioners holding diplomas, degrees or licences from authorised bodies and institutions should be entitled to practise in Indian system of medicine after registration. They further recommended that the drugs and preparations of indigenous system of treatments should be kept entirely separate as it was then that uniform curriculum and course should be prescribed for the training of the practitioners of Indian systems of medicine throughout the country. They were of opinion that the trained registered practitioners will ensure purity of drugs and some of the Indian provinces have already put on statute books similar Acts as proposed in this Bill. This Bill has been drafted in the light of recommendation of the Drugs Enquiry Committee mentioned above. The main purposes of this Bill is to control and regulate Indian system of medicine with a view to its improvement and wider prevalence for the interest of the larger population of this province. Formerly the Hakims and Kabirajes prepared their own medicine. Now-a-days they largely depend on bazar preparations which were found by the Committee to be largely spurious and adulterated. There is a great necessity of a Bill like that of the proposed one.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The institutions of union boards have become one of the most important training ground for local self-government in Bengal. Some of these boards have worked and are still working well. It is desirable that they should be given some more power to prove themselves more useful to those for whose benefit they are functioning. So in this Bill, it is proposed that they should be given powers to organise relief for the poor and the sick, to open libraries for the union people, to establish grain fund for storing seed, to sell or loan seeds to the agriculturists within their respective unions and some additional powers for taking measures for the sanitary improvements of their respective unions. It is further proposed that some union benches and courts should be given more powers to administer cheap justice to the people within their respective areas.

Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and resold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(ii) Entries in column (2) against each of the side-headings 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' under "Workers" should be worked out in the manner described in paragraph (b) (i), but based on the attendances of 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' respectively.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory, and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in clearing any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading "Employed through contractors" should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be "nil". The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(ii) Entries in column (2) against each of the side-headings 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' under "Workers" should be worked out in the manner described in paragraph (b) (i), but based on the attendances of 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' respectively.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than' 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI):—

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item V in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charge incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item V in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted

If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PART (C).

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER, 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression include any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the cost.

(c) Electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory, if consumed in the factory, should not be included. If any electricity generated or coal gas produced is sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns not covered by this return, such electricity or coal gas should be regarded as a product and its ex-factory net selling value should be included in Part (F).

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item V):—

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item IV in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item IV in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by badli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here, for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in clearing any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression include any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading "Employed through contractors" should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II (1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II (1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER, 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI):—

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31st DECEMBER, 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(ii) Entries in column (2) against each of the side-headings 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' under "Workers" should be worked out in the manner described in paragraph (b) (i), but based on the attendances of 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' respectively.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than' 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section 2 of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading "Employed through contractors" should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) Any excise duty paid on any product or by-product should also not be included in determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of that product and by-product made in the year of return for sale. Particulars relating to the name and quantity of the product and by-product on which excise duty was paid and the amount of excise duty paid during the year of return should be stated in the space provided for the purpose under item IV. 1 of the table.

(3) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV·2):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) All particulars in this Part should be given as on the 31st December 19 . If the accounts of the factory are not closed on that date and if it is inconvenient to work out the figures as on that date, all particulars may be given as on the date on which the accounts of the factory were last closed. In either case the date to which the particulars refer and the accounting year of the factory should be clearly stated in the space provided at the top of the table in items (1) and (2).

(b) If the factory is owned by a firm which also owns other factories or carries on other business, the paid-up capital in respect of the factory for which this return is made, should be arrived at by reasonable allocation between the different undertakings carried on by the firm.

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II (1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PART (C).

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(ii) Entries in column (2) against each of the side-headings 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' under "Workers" should be worked out in the manner described in paragraph (b) (i), but based on the attendances of 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' respectively.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than' 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the cost.

(c) Electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory, if consumed in the factory, should not be included. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). (e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item VII in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by badli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given

†State here whether 'higher than' 'equal to' or 'lower than' as the case may be

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be "nil". The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

If the accounts of the factory are not closed on that date and if it is inconvenient to work out the figures as on that date, all particulars may be given as on the date on which the accounts of the factory were last closed. In either case the date to which the particulars refer and the accounting year of the factory should be clearly stated in the space provided at the top of the table in items (1) and (2).

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II (1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER, 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the cost.

(c) Electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory, if consumed in the factory, should not be included. If any electricity generated or coal gas produced is sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns not covered by this return, such electricity or coal gas should be regarded as a product and its ex-factory net selling value should be included in Part (F).

MATERIALS PURCHASED AT ANY TIME AND CONSUMED DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 , IN THE MANUFACTURE OF PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE FOR SALE AND WORK GIVEN OUT DURING THE SAME YEAR.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI):—

(i) Names of items which should be added [see paragraph (b)(1) above] to the amount paid to sellers in order to arrive at the purchase value and which are not included in the value as entered and

(ii) the total amount which should be added to the value of materials as entered in each of the columns (4), (6) and (8) in order to arrive at the purchase value.

(c) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table.

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item V in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item V in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (C).

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (B). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and resold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by badli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section 2 of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading "Employed through contractors" should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfer of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The quantity of customers' material processed by the factory and the total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc , for carriage outwards should be shown against this item under III—"Work done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them."

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against each kind of work done shown under this item in columns (3) and (4) should be "nil". The space against any kind of work done, in columns (3) and (4) also should not be left blank.

If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(ii) Entries in column (2) against each of the side-headings 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' under "Workers" should be worked out in the manner described in paragraph (b) (i), but based on the attendances of 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' respectively.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Fuel, electricity, etc., consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other specified items consumed during the year. Only fuel, electricity, etc., which was purchased whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Fuel, electricity, etc., produced in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each item effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of the stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include fuel, electricity, etc., acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which a return is made.

(b) Purchase value.—For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other items specified in the table, consumed during the year, the purchase value of the quantity purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the article landed at the factory, or of the electricity transmitted to the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the article to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the cost.

(c) Electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory, if consumed in the factory, should not be included. If any electricity generated or coal gas produced is sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns not covered by this return, such electricity or coal gas should be regarded as a product and its ex-factory net selling value should be included in Part (F).

(d) If any quantity of any article specified in this table was sold in the same condition as bought, particulars relating to it should be excluded from the table.

(e) If any item mentioned in column (1) of the table below was not consumed by the factory during the year covered by this return, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each item and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (E).

MATERIALS PURCHASED AT ANY TIME AND CONSUMED DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 , IN THE MANUFACTURE OF PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE FOR SALE AND WORK GIVEN OUT DURING THE SAME YEAR.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, or in the processing of customers' materials [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value.—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, or for processing of customers' materials, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI):—

(i) Names of items which should be added [see paragraph (b) (2) above] to the amount paid to sellers in order to arrive at the purchase value and which are not included in the value as entered, and

(ii) the total amount which should be added to the value of materials as entered in each of the columns (4), (6) and (8) in order to arrive at the purchase value.

(c) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table.

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item V in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item V in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return from materials purchased by the factory, either for sale or against specific orders, whether sold or delivered to customers concerned during the year, or held in stock for disposal during a subsequent year. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales or supplies to customers against specific orders of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected and supplies against specific orders during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return, for sale or supply against specific orders, the value to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted. In case of the table below, it should be particularly noted that the ex-factory net selling value for each class of newspapers, newspapers and periodicals printed on newsprint and published by the owners of the factory and newspapers and periodicals printed on paper other than newsprint and published by the owners of the factory (under item I.A.) and in the case of items B. 17, and B. 18, periodicals, books, etc., should include the amounts receivable in respect of sales, subscriptions and advertisement.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV) :—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them (item III).—The total quantity (where required), of each article shown under item III, made or processed during the year from materials supplied by customers, and the total amount received for each kind of work done, less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against each heading under item III in column (1) of the table.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if work of a particular kind was not done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (see headings under item III of the table), the entry against relevant heading in columns (3) and (4) should be 'nil'. The space in columns (3) and (4) against any heading under item III of the table, should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each item in column (1) of the table and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If any item of fixed capital [items II (1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER, 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by badli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading "Employed through contractors" should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

MATERIALS PURCHASED AT ANY TIME AND CONSUMED DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 , IN THE MANUFACTURE OF PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE FOR SALE AND WORK GIVEN OUT DURING THE SAME YEAR.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI):—

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc , for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each item effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of the stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include fuel, electricity, etc., acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made

(b) Purchase value.—For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other items specified in the table, consumed during the year, the purchase value of the quantity purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the article landed at the factory, or of the electricity transmitted to the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the article to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the cost.

(c) Electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory, if consumed in the factory, should not be included. If any electricity generated or coal gas produced is sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns not covered by this return, such electricity or coal gas should be regarded as a product and its ex-factory net selling value should be included in Part (F).

(d) If any quantity of any article specified in this table was sold in the same condition as bought, particulars relating to it should be excluded from the table.

(e) If any item mentioned in column (1) of the table below was not consumed by the factory during the year covered by this return, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each item and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI):—

(c) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table.

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item V in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item V in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI) :—

(c) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table.

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item V in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item V in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be "nil". The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) All particulars in this Part should be given as on the 31st December, 19 . If the accounts of the factory are not closed on that date and if it is inconvenient to work out the figures as on that date, all particulars may be given as on the date on which the accounts of the factory were last closed. In either case the date to which the particulars refer and the accounting year of the factory should be clearly stated in the space provided at the top of the table in items (1) and (2).

(b) If the factory is owned by a firm which also owns other factories or carries on other business, the paid-up capital in respect of the factory for which this return is made, should be arrived at by reasonable allocation between the different undertakings carried on by the firm.

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II (1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER, 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(ii) Entries in column (2) against each of the side-headings 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' under "Workers" should be worked out in the manner described in paragraph (b) (i), but based on the attendances of 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' respectively.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by badli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side-heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value.—For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other items specified in the table, consumed during the year, the purchase value of the quantity purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the article landed at the factory, or of the electricity transmitted to the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the article to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the cost.

(c) Electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory, if consumed in the factory, should not be included. If any electricity generated or coal gas produced is sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns not covered by this return, such electricity or coal gas should be regarded as a product and its ex-factory net selling value should be included in Part (F).

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale and for processing of materials supplied by customers [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale and for processing of materials supplied by customers, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI) :—

(i) Names of items which should be added [see paragraph (b)(1) above] to the amount paid to sellers in order to arrive at the purchase value and which are not included in the value as entered and

(c) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table.

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item V in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item V in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them.—The total quantity of each material stated under item III, column (1) of the table, which was supplied by customers and was processed by the factory during the year should be entered in column (3). Similarly the total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against each material listed in column (1).

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against each sub-item under this item in columns (3) and (4) should be "nil". The spaces against any of these sub-items also, in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

(a) All particulars in this Part should be given as on the 31st December 19 . If the accounts of the factory are not closed on that date and if it is inconvenient to work out the figures as on that date, all particulars may be given as on the date on which the accounts of the factory were last closed. In either case the date to which the particulars refer and the accounting year of the factory should be clearly stated in the space provided at the top of the table in items (1) and (2).

(b) If the factory is owned by a firm which also owns other factories or carries on other business, the paid-up capital in respect of the factory for which this return is made, should be arrived at by reasonable allocation between the different undertakings carried on by the firm.

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II (1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PART (C).

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and resold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(ii) Entries in column (2) against each of the side-headings 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' under "Workers" should be worked out in the manner described in paragraph (b) (i), but based on the attendances of 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' respectively.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section 2 of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading "Employed through contractors" should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(b) Purchase value.—For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other items specified in the table, consumed during the year, the purchase value of the quantity purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the article landed at the factory, or of the electricity transmitted to the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the article to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the cost.

(c) Electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory, if consumed in the factory, should not be included. If any electricity generated or coal gas produced is sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns not covered by this return, such electricity or coal gas should be regarded as a product and its ex-factory net selling value should be included in Part (F).

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI):—

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item V in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item V in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PART (C).

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31st DECEMBER, 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale (items I and II).—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used except the cost of returnable cases or other packing. The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figures of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table).—In column (3), should be stated (except where specifically not required), the total quantity of each kind of material received during the year from other firms or customers for processing, and for return to suppliers after the work is done on the material. In column (4) should be stated against each material the total amount received for the work, less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in columns (3) and (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(ii) Entries in column (2) against each of the side-headings 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' under "Workers" should be worked out in the manner described in paragraph (b) (i), but based on the attendances of 'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls' respectively.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than' 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading "Employed through contractors" should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

(a) All particulars in this Part should be given as on the 31st December 19 . If the accounts of the factory are not closed on that date and if it is inconvenient to work out the figures as on that date, all particulars may be given as on the date on which the accounts of the factory were last closed. In either case the date to which the particulars refer and the accounting year of the factory should be clearly stated in the space provided at the top of the table in items (1) and (2).

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II (1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PART (C).

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Fuel, electricity, etc., consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other specified items consumed during the year. Only fuel, electricity, etc., which was purchased whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Fuel, electricity, etc., produced in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each item effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of the stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include fuel, electricity, etc., acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value.—For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other items specified in the table, consumed during the year, the purchase value of the quantity purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the article landed at the factory, or of the electricity transmitted to the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the article to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the cost.

(c) Electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory, if consumed in the factory, should not be included. If any electricity generated or coal gas produced is sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns not covered by this return, such electricity or coal gas should be regarded as a product and its ex-factory net selling value should be included in Part (F).

(d) If any quantity of any article specified in this table was sold in the same condition as bought, particulars relating to it should be excluded from the table.

(e) If any item mentioned in column (1) of the table below was not consumed by the factory during the year covered by this return, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI) :—

(i) Names of items which should be added [see paragraph (b) (1) above] to the amount paid to sellers in order to arrive at the purchase value and which are not included in the value as entered and

(ii) the total amount which should be added to the value of materials as entered in each of the columns (4), (6) and (8) in order to arrive at the purchase value.

(c) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table.

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item V in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item V in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

SECTION II—

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE IN THE YEAR OF RETURN FOR SALE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31st DECEMBER 19

Instructions for filling up this Section.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases of other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the Table):—In column (3), should be stated the total quantity of each kind of material received during the year, from other firms or customers, for processing, and for return to suppliers after work is done on the material. In column (4) should be stated against each material the total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Space in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) All particulars in this Part should be given as on the 31st December 19 . If the accounts of the factory are not closed on that date and if it is inconvenient to work out the figures as on that date, all particulars may be given as on the date on which the accounts of the factory were last closed. In either case the date to which the particulars refer and the accounting year of the factory should be clearly stated in the space provided at the top of the table in items (1) and (2).

(b) If the factory is owned by a firm which also owns other factories or carries on other business, the paid-up capital in respect of the factory for which this return is made, should be arrived at by reasonable allocation between the different undertakings carried on by the firm.

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II(1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PART (C).

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER, 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(b) Purchase value.—For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other items specified in the table, consumed during the year, the purchase value of the quantity purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the article landed at the factory, or of the electricity transmitted to the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the article to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the cost.

(c) Electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory, if consumed in the factory, should not be included. If any electricity generated or coal gas produced is sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns not covered by this return, such electricity or coal gas should be regarded as a product and its ex-factory net selling value should be included in Part (F).

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI):—

(i) Names of items which should be added [see paragraph (b) (1) above] to the amount paid to sellers in order to arrive at the purchase value and which are not included in the value as entered, and

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item V in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item V in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item III in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) All particulars in this Part should be given as on the 31st December 19 . If the accounts of the factory are not closed on that date and if it is inconvenient to work out the figures as on that date, all particulars may be given as on the date on which the accounts of the factory were last closed. In either case the date to which the particulars refer and the accounting year of the factory should be clearly stated in the space provided at the top of the table in items (1) and (2).

(b) If the factory is owned by a firm which also owns other factories or carries on other business, the paid-up capital in respect of the factory for which this return is made, should be arrived at by reasonable allocation between the different undertakings carried on by the firm.

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II (1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PART (C).

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and resold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, and (b) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading "Employed through contractors" should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Fuel, electricity, etc., consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other specified items consumed during the year. Only fuel, electricity, etc., which was purchased whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Fuel, electricity, etc., produced in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each item effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of the stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include fuel, electricity, etc., acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value.—For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other items specified in the table, consumed during the year, the purchase value of the quantity purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the article landed at the factory, or of the electricity transmitted to the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the article to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the cost.

(c) Electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory, if consumed in the factory, should not be included. If any electricity generated or coal gas produced is sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns not covered by this return, such electricity or coal gas should be regarded as a product and its ex-factory net selling value should be included in Part (F).

(d) If any quantity of any article specified in this table was sold in the same condition as bought, particulars relating to it should be excluded from the table.

(e) If any item mentioned in column (1) of the table below was not consumed by the factory during the year covered by this return, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each item and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

ELECTRICITY PURCHASED AND MATERIALS PURCHASED AT ANY TIME AND CONSUMED DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 , IN THE GENERATION AND/OR TRANSFORMATION OF ELECTRICAL ENERGY, IN THE MANUFACTURE OF OTHER PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS, IF ANY MADE FOR SALE, PROCESSING OF CUSTOMERS' MATERIALS OR SERVICING OF APPLIANCES, AND WORK GIVEN OUT DURING THE YEAR.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Electricity purchased.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and value of electricity purchased during the year. The value should be the net value after deductions of any discount or other drawbacks allowed by the seller. If any electricity was acquired from an allied concern, the purchase value of such electricity should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the generation and transformation of electrical energy, and in the manufacture of products and by-products made, if any, for sale, processing of customers' materials or servicing of appliances. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(c) Purchase value.—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (c) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (c) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IV):—

(i) Names of items which should be added [see paragraph (c) (1) above] to the amount paid to sellers in order to arrive at the purchase value and which are not included in the value as entered, and

(ii) the total amount which should be added to the value of materials as entered in each of the columns (4), (6) and (8) in order to arrive at the purchase value.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table.

(e) Work given out to other firms or factories (item III in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(f) If no material was consumed in the factory the entries against item I, in column 1 of the table, should be 'nil'. If no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item III in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. This space against this item also should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

Section II:—Electricity sold during the year of return, other products and by-products made in the year of return for sale and work done and services rendered during the year.

Instructions for filling up this Section.

(a)(i) Electricity sold in the year.—In the table below against each category under which electricity is sold (item 1 to 10 of the table should be stated the quantity sold during the year of return and the net selling value of that quantity, irrespective of the fact whether electricity was generated at the factory in respect of which this return is furnished or was purchased. Sales of electricity effected during the year should include electricity supplied to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Net selling value in case of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(ii) Other products and by-products made for sale during the year.—In the table below, against each product and by-product [items II and III in column (1) of the table,] should be stated the quantity made for sale in the year of return whether sold in that year, or held in stocks for sale during a subsequent period, and the ex-factory net selling value of that quantity. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stock at the end of the year and less stock at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and end of the year should be taken at book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustments. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Net selling value.—(1) For the purpose of determining the net selling value of the quantity of electric energy, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less discounts or rebates and drawbacks allowed to customers. Similarly in determining the ex-factory net-selling value of any other product or by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b).(1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for electric energy sold, and each of the other products and by-products, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b)·(1) have not been made and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VI):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) the total amount which should be deducted from the value of electric energy sold and other products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "II. Other products".

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on materials spplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) Services rendered to customers.—The total amount received during the year, (i) rent for meters and other apparatus supplied to the customers, (ii) for making electrical connections, and (iii) for other services rendered to the customers, less discounts or rebates and drawbacks allowed, should be stated against item V.

(g) If a particular type of electric current was not generated and/or transformed or a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for or no services were rendered to customers, other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item V in the table), the entries against these items in column (4) should be "nil". The space against these items also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(h) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each category of electric energy and each product and by-product; and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

CAPITAL STRUCTURE AS ON 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) All particulars in this Part should be given as on the 31st December, 19 . If the accounts of the factory are not closed on that date and if it is inconvenient to work out the figures as on that date, all particulars may be given as on the date on which the accounts of the factory were last closed. In either case the date to which the particulars refer and the accounting year of the factory should be clearly stated in the space provided at the top of the table in items (1) and (2).

(b) If the factory is owned by a firm which also owns other factories or carries on other business, the paid-up capital in respect of the factory for which this return is made, should be arrived at by reasonable allocation between the different undertakings carried on by the firm.

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II (1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PART (C).

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER, 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

PART (E).

MATERIALS PURCHASED AT ANY TIME AND CONSUMED DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 , IN THE MANUFACTURE OF PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE FOR SALE AND WORK GIVEN OUT DURING THE SAME YEAR.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VII):—

(i) Names of items which should be added [see paragraph (b) (1) above] to the amount paid to sellers in order to arrive at the purchase value and which are not included in the value as entered, and

(ii) the total amount which should be added to the value of materials as entered in each of the columns (4), (6) and (8) in order to arrive at the purchase value.

(c) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table.

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item VI in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item VI in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity (including the quantity made against specifications) and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns or any Government or semi-Government agencies and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottomof the table (item IX):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(3) If any product or by-product is not made for sale and its ex-factory net selling value cannot be given as required above, the value of such product or by-product should be estimated on the basis of materials or parts used or worked up in its manufacture together with due allowance for cost of labour expended on it, general charges and profits allowed, if any.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) Repair work.—The amount charged for repair work done during the year should be shown against this item, exclusive of the value of any goods made by the factory and used in the work, which should be entered against the headings provided for such goods.

(g) Work in progress at the end and at the beginning of the year.—For the purpose of determining the total output attributable to the year covered by this return, account must be taken of the value of work in progress at the end and at the beginning of that year. In both cases the value should be estimated on the basis of materials or parts used or worked up in the construction of plant and machinery, cost of labour expended on them, together with due allowance for general charges and profits.

(h) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no income accrues to the factory under any of the heads listed in items III to IV and VII, the entry against it should be "nil". The spaces against these items also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(i) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II (1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by badli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading "Employed through contractors" should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). (e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item VI in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity (including the quantity made against specific orders) and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VII):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(3) If any product or by-product is not made for sale but for transfer to an allied concern or undertaking and its ex-factory net selling value cannot be given as required above, the value of such product or by-product should be estimated on the basis of materials or parts used or worked up in its manufacture together with due allowance for cost of labour expended on it, general charges and profits allowed, if any.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them (item IV).—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) Repair work (item III).—The amounts charged for repair work done during the year should be shown against this item, exclusive of the value of any goods made by the factory and used in the work, which should be entered against the headings provided for such goods.

(g) Work in progress at the end and at the beginning of the year (items V and VII).—For the purpose of determining the total output attributable to the year covered by this return, account must be taken of the value of work in progress including repairs at the end and at the beginning of that year. In both cases the value should be estimated on the basis of materials or parts used or worked up in the construction of plant and machinery, cost of labour expended on them, together with due allowance for general charges and profits.

(h) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no income accrues to the factory under any of the heads listed in items III, IV and V, the entry against them should be "nil". The spaces against these items also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(i) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

(a) All particulars in this Part should be given as on the 31st December 19 . PART (C).

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31st DECEMBER, 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(c) The average number of persons employed per day [column (3)] should be worked out by dividing the aggregate total attendances on all working days by the total number of working days during the year. In reckoning attendances, attendances by budli or substitution and temporary as well as permanent employees should be counted. Total attendances should be arrived at by taking the aggregate of daily attendances in respect of all working days. Absence for hours only need not be considered. Total attendances on any day should be the total of the attendances on each shift worked during that day. Days on which the factory was closed for whatever cause and days on which the manufacturing processes were not carried on should not be treated as working days.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.

†State here whether 'higher than', 'equal to' or 'lower than', as the case may be.

‡Under this heading should be included all other items of working capital, as, for example, (a) cash in hand and at banks, (b) stocks of partly finished products, (c) net balance (plus or minus as the case may be) obtained after deducting the total of credit items from the total of debit items. The credit items should be items like debts due to the factory, advances by the factory against goods or to employees, bills of exchange payable to the factory and the debit items should be items like amounts due for goods supplied to the factory, loans and bills of exchange payable by the factory.

specified under clauses (d) to (j) of sub-section (2) of section 7 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936. The remuneration to a proprietor should be included only if he is actively engaged in the business of the factory and then only to the extent to which it is paid in lieu of salary or wages. His share of the profits of the business should not be included.

(e) If for the purpose of entries in column (5), separate figures for each of the side headings in column (1) are not available, the total money value of the privileges, benefits or contributions may be entered in the space provided for 'total'. The items of privileges or benefits or contributions included should be specified at the top of column (5).

(f) (i) "Worker" means a person employed for wages in any manufacturing processes or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises used for the manufacturing processes, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to or connected with the manufacturing processes or connected with the subject of the manufacturing processes, but does not include any person solely employed in clerical capacity in any room or place where no manufacturing process is being carried on [see also paragraph (a) above].

(ii) "Persons other than workers" should include all employees not covered by the term "worker" as defined in paragraph (f) (i), including clerical, administrative and technical staff, whether working in the factory premises or any other place and whose salaries and wages are debitable to the factory's account [see also paragraph (a) above].

(g) "Adult" means a person who has completed the seventeenth year of age. The expression includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(h) "Child" means a person who has not completed the fifteenth year of age and includes any person who has completed the fifteenth but not the seventeenth year of age and has not been certified to be an "adult" under the Factories Act, 1934.

(i) Particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors should be entered as far as they are available with the person submitting the return. If no particulars relating to "workers" employed through contractors are available, the entries against the side heading 'Employed through contractors' should be "not available" in the relevant columns.

(j) If any class of "workers"—'men', 'women', 'boys' and 'girls'—was not employed during the year, the entry against that class of workers in columns (2) to (5) should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (2) to (5) should not be left blank against any side-heading. Figures in columns (4) and (5) should be entered to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

FUEL, ELECTRICITY, COAL GAS, LUBRICATING MATERIALS AND WATER PURCHASED AT ANY TIME AND CONSUMED DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Fuel, electricity, etc., consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other specified items consumed during the year. Only fuel, electricity, etc., which was purchased whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Fuel, electricity, etc., produced in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each item effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of the stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include fuel, electricity, etc., acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value.—For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each item of fuel, of electricity and of other items specified in the table, consumed during the year, the purchase value of the quantity purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the article landed at the factory, or of the electricity transmitted to the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the article to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the cost.

(c) Electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory, if consumed in the factory, should not be included. If any electricity generated or coal gas produced is sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns not covered by this return, such electricity or coal gas should be regarded as a product and its ex-factory net selling value should be included in Part (F).

(d) If any quantity of any article specified in this table was sold in the same condition as bought, particulars relating to it should be excluded from the table.

(e) If any item mentioned in column (1) of the table below was not consumed by the factory during the year covered by this return, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each item and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (E).

MATERIALS PURCHASED AT ANY TIME AND CONSUMED DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 , IN THE MANUFACTURE OF PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE FOR SALE AND WORK GIVEN OUT DURING THE SAME YEAR.

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Materials consumed in the year.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and purchase value of each material [other than those specified in Part (D)] consumed during the year in the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale [as shown in Part (F)]. The table should cover all consumable stores. Only materials which were purchased, whether during the year or earlier, should be included. Materials made in the factory should not be included. If the amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory it should be noted that the amounts should cover actual purchases of each material effected during the year plus stocks at the beginning of the year and less stocks at the end. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. Purchases made during the year should include materials acquired from allied concerns. The purchase value of such transactions should be taken as equal to the value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Purchase value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the purchase value of the quantity of each material consumed during the year for the manufacture of products and by-products made for sale, the purchase value of the quantity of material purchased during the year should be taken as equal to the cost of the material landed at the factory, i.e., any expenses incurred in transporting the material to the factory should be added to the payment made to the seller of the material unless transport was carried out by the factory's own staff. If any duty was paid by the factory, it should also be added to the amount paid to the seller.

(2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VII):—

(i) Names of items which should be added [see paragraph (b) (1) above] to the amount paid to sellers in order to arrive at the purchase value and which are not included in the value as entered and

(ii) the total amount which should be added to the value of materials as entered in each of the columns (4), (6) and (8) in order to arrive at the purchase value.

(c) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table.

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item V in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item VI in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity (including the quantity made against specific orders) and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns or any Government or semi-Government agencies and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item IX):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(3) If any product or by-product is not made for sale but is transferred to an allied concern or undertaking, and its ex-factory net selling value cannot be given as required above, the value of such product or by-product should be estimated on the basis of materials or parts used or worked up in its manufacture together with due allowance for cost of labour expended on it, general charges and profits allowed, if any.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. In both cases the value should be estimated on the basis of materials or parts used or worked up in the construction of plant and machinery, cost of labour expended on them, together with due allowance for general charges and profits.

(h) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. (2) If additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) to the amount paid to sellers are not available separately for each material, the amount paid to the sellers may be included in the figure of purchase value entered in columns (4), (6) and (8). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of these columns that the additions specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item VIII):—

(i) Names of items which should be added [see paragraph (b) (1) above] to the amount paid to sellers in order to arrive at the purchase value and which are not included in the value as entered and

(ii) the total amount which should be added to the value of materials as entered in each of the columns (4), (6) and (8) in order to arrive at the purchase value.

(c) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table.

(d) Work given out to other firms or factories (item VII in the table).—The total amount paid to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them plus transport and any other charges incurred on these goods should be shown against this item.

(e) If a material listed in column (1) was not consumed by the factory, the entry against it should be 'nil'. Spaces in columns (3) to (8) should not be left blank against any item of material listed in column (1). Similarly if no payment was made to other firms or factories for work done on materials given out to them (item VII in the table), the entry against this item should be 'nil'. The space against this item also should not be left blank.

(f) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each material and purchase value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (F).

PRODUCTS AND BY-PRODUCTS MADE AND WORK DONE DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Products and by-products made in the year for sale.—In the table below should be stated the quantity and ex-factory net selling value of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, whether sold in that year or held in stock for sale during a subsequent period. If these amounts are not directly available from the books of the factory, it should be noted that the amounts should cover the actual sales of each product and by-product effected in the year plus stocks at the end of the year and less stocks at the beginning. The value of stocks at the beginning and at the end of the year should be taken at the book value. The ex-factory net selling value should include cost of packing materials used (except the cost of returnable cases or other packing). The weight of packing materials should not, however, be included in the figures of weight of products and by-products. Sales effected during the year should include any transfers of products and by-products made to allied concerns and credit for whose value was secured by book adjustment. Ex-factory net selling value of such transactions should be taken as equal to value entered in the books of the factory in respect of which this return is made.

(b) Ex-factory net selling value—

(1) For the purpose of determining the ex-factory net selling value of the quantity of each product and by-product made in the year of return for sale, the value of sales to be taken into account should be the amount charged to customers less (i) discounts or rebates, allowances for returnable cases or other packing and any other drawbacks allowed to customers and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc., for carriage outwards. Charges made for delivery when delivery is carried out by the factory's own staff should not be deducted.

(2) If deductions specified in paragraph (b) (1) from the amount charged to customers are not available separately for each product and by-product, the amount charged to customers may be included in the figure of value entered in column (4). If this procedure is adopted, (a) it should be clearly stated at the top of column (4) that deductions from the amount charged to customers specified in paragraph (b) (1) have not been made, and (b) the following information must be furnished in the space provided for the purpose at the bottom of the table (item V):—

(i) Names of items which should be deducted [see paragraph (b) (1) above] from the amount charged to customers in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value and which are included in the value as entered, and

(ii) The total amount which should be deducted from the value of products and by-products as entered in column (4) in order to arrive at the ex-factory net selling value.

(c) Electricity generated and coal gas produced at the factory and sold.—Any electricity generated or coal gas produced at the factory and sold to any person or transferred to allied concerns should be regarded as a product and should be included in the entry against the heading "All other products (value only)" under item "I. Products" of the table.

(d) Exclusion of merchanted goods.—Particulars relating to goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but were merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received, should be excluded from the table below.

(e) Work done for other firms or customers on material supplied by them.—The total amount received for the work less (i) discount or rebates and other drawbacks allowed to customers, and (ii) payments to transport firms, railways, etc , for carriage outwards should be shown against this item.

(f) If a product or by-product listed in column (1) was not made by the factory, the entry against it should be "nil". Spaces in columns (3) and (4) should not be left blank against any item of product or by-product listed in column (1). Similarly, if no work was done for other firms or customers on materials supplied by them (item IV in the table), the entry against this item in column (4) should be 'nil'. The space against this item also in column (4) should not be left blank.

(g) Quantity should be stated to the nearest unit specified for each product and by-product and value should be stated to the nearest rupee. Fractions should be omitted.

PART (B).

CAPITAL STRUCTURE AS ON 31ST DECEMBER 19

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) All particulars in this Part should be given as on the 31st December 19 . If the accounts of the factory are not closed on that date and if it is inconvenient to work out the figures as on that date, all particulars may be given as on the date on which the accounts of the factory were last closed. In either case the date to which the particulars refer and the accounting year of the factory should be clearly stated in the space provided at the top of the table in items (1) and (2).

(b) If the factory is owned by a firm which also owns other factories or carries on other business, the paid-up capital in respect of the factory for which this return is made, should be arrived at by reasonable allocation between the different undertakings carried on by the firm.

(c) 'Value' in all the headings specified under item "II. Productive capital employed" should be taken to mean value according to the books of the factory on the date to which the particulars furnished in this Part relate. For items of fixed capital this will invariably be the original cost plus the cost of improvements made and less amount written off. If the factory occupies only a portion of any building or any piece of land, particulars relating to only that portion should be included in the table. If any item of fixed capital [items II(1) (i) to II (1) (iii)] has been leased or rented, the rent paid should be shown separately in the column provided for this purpose [column (3)] against these items. If any lump sum consideration was originally paid for securing the lease or for renting the item of fixed capital in question, the present book value of the amount originally paid should be included in the amount to be entered in column (2) against the appropriate heading.

(d) It should be clearly indicated in item (3) at the top of the table whether book value of fixed capital items as entered in the table has been arrived at by writing off depreciation in respect of the year immediately preceding the date to which the particulars relate at a rate higher than, equal to or lower than the rate of depreciation prescribed under section 10 (2) (vi) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922.

PERSONS EMPLOYED, SALARIES AND WAGES PAID AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS MADE TO EMPLOYEES DURING THE YEAR ENDING 31ST DECEMBER, 19 .

Instructions for filling up this Part.

(a) Particulars in the table below should relate to employees engaged in work connected directly or indirectly with the manufacture of the output as shown in Part (F). All administrative, technical and clerical staff should be included. Employees engaged in effecting delivery of the output should also be included, but persons employed in any retail sales organization maintained by the factory should be excluded. If the factory carries on any merchanting trade (i.e., sale of goods which were not subjected to any manufacturing process but merely bought and re-sold in the same condition as received), persons engaged in that part of the business should also be excluded.

(b) (i) The total number of man-hours worked during the year should be obtained by adding the total number of man-hours worked on each day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory. The total number of man-hours worked on any day on which the manufacturing processes were carried on in the factory should be obtained by multiplying the total attendances during each shift by the number of hours that shift was worked and adding the product so obtained for all shifts worked on that day.

(d) Entries in column (4) should include salaries and wages, cost of living or dearness allowances, overtime earnings and other additional payments. For the purpose of entries in this column no deductions from salaries and wages should be made in respect of items

*If the accounts of the factory are closed more than once in an accounting year, all the dates on which they are closed should be given here; for example, if accounts are closed six-monthly, the dates of both six-monthly closings should be given.
